

ENVIRONMENTAL POLICY STATEMENT

Smith & Coburn Ltd is an independent washroom and janitorial company bringing a breath of fresh air with its environmentally sensitive products and strong customer service focus. Specialising in the sale and distribution of quality cleaning, hygiene and associated products, we believe that understanding our customers and their specific requirements is crucial to our business.

Smith & Coburn Ltd seeks excellence in every aspect of its business and is committed to maximising the positive and minimising the negative environmental impacts of our business operations.

The significant aspects of its strategy are to:

Continually examine and evaluate the potential environmental impact of each of our operations and of each product used in carrying out those operations

Minimise waste and manage our business operations to prevent pollution and emissions

Assess and ensure continual improvement of our environmental performance

Comply with all relevant environmental legislation and regulations

Actively promote the principles of 'reduce, re-use and recycle' both internally and among our customers and suppliers

To meet our commitments, we will:

Choose and select product suppliers that take their social responsibility seriously

Communicate internally and externally our environmental policy and performance on a regular basis and encourage feedback

Work together and encourage our employees, supply and service partners and any third party involved with our business to promote improved environmental performance

Review our Environmental Policy every twelve months
